Sexual Offense Evidence Collection Kit Inventory Report – Update

Issued April 10, 2017

This report was first published on March 1, 2017, pursuant to state Executive Law §838-a. The law requires statistical reporting and testing related to sexual offense evidence collection kits (kits).

The law also designates the state Division of Criminal Justice Services (DCJS) as the agency responsible for educating law enforcement agencies about new reporting requirements and collecting statistical data required to be reported by those agencies and forensic laboratories. It also required DCJS to submit to the leadership of the New York State Senate and New York State Assembly by March 1, 2017, a statistical report detailing the results of an initial inventory of kits in possession of police and prosecutorial agencies across New York State.

After publishing the statutorily required report on March 1, DCJS continued to educate police agencies and prosecutors' officers about the requirement to report under this new law. DCJS gave agencies that had not reported until March 31, 2017, to submit their data, but continued to accept information from agencies after that date to obtain the most comprehensive data available.

A total of 458 of 588 agencies (78 percent) reported information as of the date of this report. Those agencies reported 1,981 untested sexual offense evidence kits in their possession.

Attachment A includes an updated, alphabetical list of every police agency and prosecutors' office in New York State and their reporting status. Please note:

- If an agency or office responded as required, the list includes the number of sexual offense evidence kits in that agency or office's custody and control.
- DNR (Did Not Report) indicates those agencies or offices that did not provide information to DCJS.

Attachment B includes correspondence from DCJS to police agencies and prosecutors' offices to notify them of the new deadline and remind them of their obligation to report this information to the state.

DCJS facilitated uniform reporting of data by providing police agencies and prosecutors' offices with a link to a simple, online reporting tool.

In addition, the agency continued to work with the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police, the New York State Sheriffs' Association, and the District Attorneys' Association of New York State so they could notify their respective members of the new deadline and urge them to provide the information to the state as required.

To: dcjs.sm.ops.general.policing

Subject: Statutorily Required Sexual Offense Evidence Kit Inventory Report

To all New York State Police Chiefs, Sheriffs and District Attorneys:

Please see the attached Sexual Offense Evidence Kit Inventory Report, which was submitted today (Wednesday, March 1) to leaders of the New York State Senate and Assembly as required by state Executive Law §838-a. The law requires statistical reporting and testing related to sexual offense evidence kits (kits).

The report details the number of sexual offense evidence kits inventoried by police agencies and prosecutors' offices and subsequently reported to DCJS as of February 27, 2017. Agencies were required to tally the number of kits in their custody and control that had not been sent to a forensic laboratory for testing.

DCJS initially notified you of this reporting requirement in December. Follow-up correspondence, which also included a link to an online survey to facilitate your reporting, was sent to you by DCJS in January and February.

Attachment A of the report contains an alphabetical list of all police departments, sheriffs' offices and district attorneys' offices and their responses to the survey. Agencies and offices that did not submit their survey are denoted with a "DNR" (did not report).

If your agency or office did not meet the statutory deadline for reporting, please complete this survey as soon as possible, but no later than March 31, 2017. DCJS will file an addendum to this report reflecting the updated information it receives.

Please note that your agency's obligation under the law to report to "the appropriate forensic laboratory" is not fulfilled by reporting to DCJS and should be handled separately.

Thank you for your assistance and cooperation. Please contact Michael-Sean Spence at 518-457-7625 or michael-sean.spence@dcjs.ny.gov if you have any questions or concerns.
